We would like to take this opportunity to thank the class of 1999 for four years that changed us all. It's been a long, hard road, but we finally made it. Somewhere along the lines, though, we stopped being colleagues and became family. We have all worked extremely hard and made personal sacrifices to get here, but it's going to be worth it. No matter where you all end up, we wish you the best of luck and look forward to crossing paths in the future.

Good luck,
Brian and Dave

I would like to thank all the members of my staff who have contributed their free time, hard work, and creativity to make this a successful yearbook. I would especially like to thank Kim and Wendy for burning the midnight oil to meet deadlines, and Janet and Rachel for picking up the slack while I was on externship. Thanks also to our corporate sponsors (Marchon, Walman Optical, Alcon, Volk, and the ICO Bookstore) and Nancy. Without them, this venture would not have been realized. To the class of 1999, thank you for your faith and wealth of memories. I wish you all luck, health, and success in the future and hope that our paths may someday cross again.

Love always, Cam

Class of 1999, we made it! Those Monday quizzes and lab practicals almost seem like a dream (or nightmare?); the memory of them will undoubtedly fade just as quickly. What will remain though is the memory of friendships made from hardship and the support given freely over the past four years. There has been a lot of sweat and a lot of tears, but we have succeeded only with each other's help and caring. So I propose that on the verge of the new millennium, may the first toast of champagne be to you, to me, to all of us. Congratulations, Class of 1999! Best of luck always!

Love, Janet and Rachel

oh, I think I'm going to cry... :)
